

Anth (Anthropology)

Undergraduate Courses

Anth 210 Cultural Anthropology ..... (3 FS)

Introduces the nature of Human Culture as an adaptive ecological and evolutionary system, emphasizing basic Anthropological concepts, principles, and problems. Draws data from both traditional and industrial cultures to cover such concepts as values and beliefs, Social Organization, Economic and Political Order, Science, Technology, and Aesthetic Expression.

Anth 220 Physical Anthropology .....(3 F)

Focuses upon the interactive process between Human Biology and Human Culture, drawing relationships among such concepts as Human Evolution, Human Heredity, Human Biological Diversity, and Biological Micro-Adaptations.

Anth 410 North American Ethnology ..... (3) (on demand)

A comparative survey of native North American cultures representative of major cultural areas of North America. Emphasis on traditional cultures using a case-study approach. Cross listed with AIS 410

Anth 494-496 Internship/Field Experience .....(1-12 FSSu)

Planned and supervised professional experience related to Anthropology which takes place outside the formal classroom with business, industry, public agencies. Credit will not count toward meeting minimum requirements of the major or minor. May be repeated until 12 credits are earned. Graded P or F. P, major, consent of department program coordinator.

Anth 495-496 Internship/Field Experience in Anthropology ..... (1-12 FSSu)

Planned and supervised professional experience related to Anthropology, which takes place outside the formal classroom with business, industry, public agencies. Credit will not count toward meeting minimum requirements of the major or minor. May be repeated until 12 credits are earned. Graded P or F. P, major, consent of department program coordinator.

Dual Numbered Courses

Anth 421-521 Indians of North America ..... (3 FSSu)

Provides prospective teachers and those interested in Indian people with a basic knowledge of Indian heritage and culture. Emphasis on the Dakota Indians. Cross listed with AIS 421; INED 411; (Fulfills Teacher Ed. requirement.)

Anth 491-591 Independent Study .....(1-3 FSSu)

P, open to undergraduate and graduate students with sufficient background and consent of instructor.

Anth 492-592 Topics in Anthropology .....(1-3) (on demand)

Selected topics pertaining to theory and methods in cultural, physical anthropology and archaeology. P, undergraduate/graduate and consent of instructor.